CLOSING OUR 2020-2021 SEASON WITH:

Best of Brink Briefs

Always an audience favorite at our annual Brink New Play Festival, the Brink BRIEFS are fully-staged short plays written by women playwrights from the Midwest. We have carefully chosen some of the best BRIEFS from the last three seasons to create a thoroughly enjoyable evening.

DOG HEROES by Lillian Schley

A fame-hungry dog tries to relive her fifteen minutes as an internet hero.

BODIES by Rachel Bykowski

Sergeant W. returns home. The fighting continues.

TWO TRUTHS AND A LIE by Emily Elliott

One night, too many drinks, and three roommates reveal their secrets!

SMART GIRLS by Amanda Schumacher

What do Siri, Alexa, and Cortana really think about their human counterparts?

JUNIPER FLIES by Maria Pretzl

A young pig decides to attempt something that no pig has ever done before... fly!
