NEAT

BY Charlayne Woodard | DIRECTED BY Suzan Fete
FEATURING Marti Gobel, reprising her 2012 tour-de-force role.

Woodard is a magnificent storyteller who spins her own exquisite real-life remembrances of love and resilience.

Back by popular demand! NEAT is a magical, often humorous, coming-of-age story. Based in the oral traditions of the African Diaspora, award-winning playwright, Woodard is a modern-day griot. As an infant, Woodard's beloved Aunt Beneatha (Neat), is denied treatment at the local "white" hospital, leaving her with permanent brain damage. But Neat possesses an enormous heart. With love and simplicity, Neat teaches young Charlayne to embrace black pride and cherish life through the turbulent 1960s and 1970s.
